Taylor Shea Elected to My Sisters' Place Board of Directors

HARTFORD, CT (August 11, 2014) – My Sisters' Place, Inc. has elected Robinson+Cole lawyer Taylor A. Shea to its board of directors for a two-year term. My Sisters' Place is committed to ending homelessness and empowering women, families, and others in Greater Hartford to achieve independence and stability in their communities by providing housing and related support services.

Ms. Shea is a member of Robinson+Cole's Business Transactions and Finance Groups. She focuses her practice on commercial finance transactions, mergers and acquisitions, private equity and venture capital transactions, and general corporate matters. She has been giving back to the community as a member of the Junior League of Hartford since 2011 and is currently Co-Chair of its Membership Events Committee. She is also a member of the Women's Committee of the Turnaround Management Association's Connecticut Chapter and a member of the Business Law Sections of the American Bar Association and Connecticut Bar Association. She earned her B.A. from the College of the Holy Cross, magna cum laude, and her J.D., with honors, from the University of Connecticut School of Law.
