Robinson+Cole Lawyer Elected to Goodspeed Opera House Board of Trustees

HARTFORD, CT (December 1, 2015) – Robinson+Cole construction lawyer Peter E. Strniste, Jr., has been elected to the Board of Trustees of the Goodspeed Opera House.

Goodspeed has produced more than 250 musicals, including more than 70 world premieres; has exported 20 productions to Broadway; and is the first regional theatre in America to earn two special Tony Awards. Through its Scherer Library of Musical Theatre, the second most extensive musical theatre research library in the United States, Goodspeed also serves as a resource for preserving the art form. Additionally, Goodspeed offers innovative educational programs through its Max Showalter Center for Education in Musical Theatre and provides art education programs for underserved Connecticut youth through its Arts Education Collaboration.
