Robinson+Cole Partner Elected to The Bushnell Board of Overseers

HARTFORD, CT (July 8, 2015) – The Bushnell Center for the Performing Arts has named Robinson+Cole partner Jeffrey J. White to its Board of Overseers. Mr. White was elected to the board at The Bushnell's Annual Meeting on June 10, 2015.

Robinson+Cole is a long-standing supporter of The Bushnell, and Mr. White's appointment to the board further strengthens the firm's commitment to the performing arts center. Robinson+Cole partner Eric D. Daniels is already involved with The Bushnell as an officer and member of the Board of Trustees. Additionally, the firm has been the title sponsor of The Bushnell Family Series for the past 15 seasons.

Mr. White is chair of Robinson+Cole's Manufacturing and Distribution Team, where he advises both publicly traded and privately held manufacturers/distributors on a range of matters, including corporate compliance and litigation. Mr. White also serves as a corporator of the Saint Francis Hospital and Medical Center Foundation, an officer on the Board of Directors of the New England Air Museum, and an officer on the Board of Directors of the Connecticut Supreme Court Historical Society. He is a past member of the Board of Directors of the Center for First Amendment Rights, Inc.

About The Bushnell Center for the Performing Arts

For more than 80 years, The Bushnell's mission has been to enrich, illuminate, energize, and delight the spirit of the community. The Bushnell, a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit, hosts more than 350 events a year, including major Broadway tours, symphony orchestras, family presentations, and local arts and community events. In partnership with others, it serves as a catalyst to advance education, promote economic development, and build a sense of community in Central Connecticut. Learn more at www.bushnell.org.
