Stuart Rosen Elected to Nutmeg Big Brothers Big Sisters Board of Directors

HARTFORD, CT (February 11, 2016) – Robinson+Cole partner Stuart D. Rosen has been elected to the Board of Directors of Nutmeg Big Brothers Big Sisters, an affiliate of Big Brothers Big Sisters of America. The national organization was founded more than 100 years ago. Nutmeg Big Brothers Big Sisters is celebrating its 50th anniversary in Connecticut and is the state's largest volunteer mentoring network. It creates meaningful, professionally supported matches between adult volunteers, known as "Bigs," and children in need ages 6 through 18, known as "Littles."

Nutmeg Big Brothers Big Sisters operates under the belief that every child has the ability to succeed, thrive, and reach their fullest potential in life. With programs in 132 of the state's 169 municipalities, Nutmeg develops positive relationships that have a direct and lasting effect on the lives of young people in need. "I am excited to join the Board of Nutmeg Big Brothers Big Sisters," Mr. Rosen said. "My wife has been a Big Sister for several years and I know first-hand how rewarding that relationship has been both for my wife and for her 'Little.' The organization does terrific work, and I look forward to helping advance their mission."

Mr. Rosen is a commercial litigator and a member of Robinson+Cole's Business Litigation and Insurance + Reinsurance Groups. He represents corporate and institutional clients in complex business litigation, involving contract disputes, business torts, insurance and reinsurance, partnership disputes, real estate, and mass torts. In addition to his trial experience, he has extensive alternative dispute resolution experience as an advocate and arbitrator and in mediations.
