Robinson+Cole Lawyer Elected to Connecticut Women's Hall of Fame Board of Trustees

HARTFORD, CT (July 3, 2018) – The Connecticut Women's Hall of Fame, an educational outreach organization whose mission is to honor publicly the achievement of Connecticut women, preserve their stories, educate the public, and inspire the continued achievements of women and girls, has elected Robinson+Cole lawyer Abby M. Warren to its Board of Trustees. Ms. Warren is a member of Robinson+Cole's Labor and Employment Group.

Ms. Warren focuses her practice on counseling private sector employers, including multinational corporations, health care organizations, educational institutions, and manufacturers, in all areas of employment law. She also defends employers in federal and state court and before administrative agencies. In addition to counseling and litigation, Ms. Warren provides workplace training for clients and conducts workplace investigations.

Founded in 1994, the primary goal of the Connecticut Women's Hall of Fame is to provide role models to women of all ages, encouraging them to recognize their potential, and live their dreams. The Hall stands as the state's premier source for Connecticut women's history with more than a hundred Inductees.
