Robinson+Cole Lawyer Appointed to Hartford's Camp Courant Board of Directors

HARTFORD, CT (February 27, 2018) – Hartford's Camp Courant, the largest free summer day camp in the nation, has appointed Robinson+Cole lawyer Evan J. Seeman to its Board of Directors. Mr. Seeman is a member of the firm's Real Estate + Development Group.

Mr. Seeman concentrates his practice in three areas – religious land use litigation, land use and zoning, and real property litigation. He represents developers, landowners, municipalities, corporations, and advocacy groups. Mr. Seeman has served on the Advisory Board of Hartford's Camp Courant since 2013.

Hartford's Camp Courant serves over 1,000 of Hartford's children, ages five to 12, typically between 500 - 600 children per day for six weeks each summer. The Camp prides itself on helping children learn to develop into healthy, responsible adults through its recreational, educational, and cultural programs.
