Robinson+Cole Lawyer Elected to Connecticut Bar Foundation Board of Directors

Edward Heath joins effort to promote equal access to justice in the state

HARTFORD, CT (April 19, 2017) – The Connecticut Bar Foundation (CBF), an organization dedicated to enhancing the understanding and improvement of the law and supporting equal access to legal services, has appointed Robinson+Cole lawyer Edward J. Heath to its Board of Directors. Mr. Heath is chair of the firm's Business Litigation Group and leads its Government Investigations and Corporate Compliance Team. In addition to serving on the board of directors, Mr. Heath is a Fellow of the CBF's James W. Cooper Fellows Program.

Since 1952, the Connecticut Bar Foundation has worked in partnership with judges, attorneys, and law schools to promote understanding and improvement of the law, legal institutions, and the legal profession. The CBF administers programs that benefit legal services agencies to provide access to justice for all people in Connecticut.
