Robinson+Cole Sponsors Hartford Stage's Production of Detroit '67

Firm makes contribution to Boys & Girls Clubs of Hartford prior to performance

HARTFORD, CT (March 1, 2019) – Robinson+Cole made a contribution to the Boys & Girls Clubs of Hartford (BGCH) during a private reception hosted prior to the Hartford Stage performance of Detroit '67 on February 27, 2019. Robinson+Cole, a longtime supporter of Hartford Stage and a lead sponsor for the production, continued to demonstrate its commitment to community, education, and diversity and inclusion by selecting the BGCH to receive this year's contribution.

During the reception, Stephen E. Goldman, managing partner of Robinson+Cole, presented a check for $2,500 to Shawonda Swain, vice president and chief operating officer of BGCH, and Brenda Parker, director of teen services for BGCH. The donation will help BGCH provide an array of youth development programs designed to put the region's most needy children and teens on the path to great futures.
